THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES INVITES RESUMES FOR

COUNTY
COUNSEL
(UNCLASSIFIED)

ANNUAL SALARY: $138,632 TO $207,948

FILING PERIOD:
JANUARY 12, 2004 – FEBRUARY 27, 2004

COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

The County of Los Angeles, with a population of nearly 10 million people, has more residents than any county in the nation, and within its boundaries are 88 cities. It is rich in cultural diversity and home to world-renowned museums, theaters, the nation's motion picture industry, major universities and numerous five-star restaurants. The mountains, deserts and the Pacific Ocean, along with some of the world's finest urban recreational attractions, are freeway close.

The County of Los Angeles is governed by a five-member Board of Supervisors who are elected on a non-partisan basis and serve four-year terms. As the governing body, the Board of Supervisors serves as both the executive and legislative authority of the largest and most complex county government in the United States.

The County has an annual budget in excess of $16.85 billion. Thirty-six major administrative units or departments serve the needs of the County's population. The County employs over 92,000 full-time personnel to serve its diverse population.

THE OFFICE OF THE COUNTY COUNSEL

The Office of the County Counsel provides ethical, timely, effective legal representation, advice and counsel to the Board of Supervisors, the County, and Public Officers and Agencies. The Office provides a broad range of civil legal services, including advising on the law as it applies to County operations; drafting legal documents; representing the County in civil court actions, including dependency court cases and in financial funding issues. The County Counsel also assists in representing the County's position in the State Legislature and before State and federal regulatory agencies and administrative hearing boards.

The current departmental operating budget is over $65 million and includes funding for approximately 534 positions. The Office of the County Counsel aligns itself with the County's Strategic Plan with emphasis placed on service excellence, workforce excellence, organizational effectiveness and fiscal responsibility.
